Faculty Senate Action #87005
Class B Legislation

[Revised language for sections 2.1 and 9.10 of the Bylaw on Faculty Status, Titles, Appointment, Reappointment, Promotion, and the Award of Tenure.]

2.1
Appointive Authorities

The power to appoint and remove both administrative officers and members of the General Faculty is vested in the Board of Trustees. The Board of Trustees shall appoint the President of the University.

The President, by authority of the Board of Trustees, shall select the Provost, the Deans, and the administrative officers and shall appoint the General Faculty of the University. The President is the presiding officer of the General Faculty.

The Provost, as delegated by authority of the President, shall make appointments to the General Faculty and promote members of the General Faculty to higher ranks.

All appointments to the General Faculty and promotions to higher ranks shall be made in accordance with the procedures set forth in the Faculty Charter, Section XII, and in this Bylaw.

9.10
Provost Actions

The Provost, as delegated by the President, makes all reappointments and promotions. After reviewing each candidate's file, the Provost shall notify each candidate of his decision to reappoint or promote. When the Provost decides against promotion and there is a positive recommendation from the voting faculty, the Provost should explain in writing his reasons and the candidate should be counseled by his Chair or Dean on what should be done to secure promotion.
