Date: 30 October 2000

Subject: Faculty Senate Legislation #2000-09(B)-Amendment to Faculty Manual Sections C5.3(a) and C5.3(b) – Interim Appointments

The Faculty Senate, at its 25 October 2000 meeting, unanimously voted to approve Faculty Senate Legislation #2000-09(B)-Amendment to Faculty Manual Sections C5.3(a) and C5.3(b)-Interim Appointments as follows:

C5 ADMINISTRATIVE APPOINTMENTS

C5.3 Interim Appointments

C5.3(a) In the case of a vacancy due to resignation, death, incapacity or other similar unforeseen circumstance, the appointing authority may, after appropriate consultation, make an INTERIM APPOINTMENT of a REGULAR FACULTY member with a primary appointment within the unit to be an administrative officer. The term of such an appointment shall be limited to the duration of a timely search to fill the position in a regular manner. If such a search should exceed two years, the appointing authority may, after appropriate consultation, make another INTERIM APPOINTMENT.

C5.3(b) If rare circumstances make it in the general University interests, the appointing authority may, after appropriate consultation, make an INTERIM APPOINTMENT of a REGULAR FACULTY member from one academic unit to be an administrative officer in another unit while retaining a primary appointment in the former unit. During the period of any such INTERIM APPOINTMENT, the individual may not exercise voting rights in the primary unit, but may be extended limited voting rights in the new unit as provided for in A10.1 and C3.5. Such appointments are temporary and should not exceed one year. If the situation requires such an appointment be made for an additional year, the appointing authority may, after appropriate consultation, make another such INTERIM APPOINTMENT.

The intention of this minor change is to clarify the requirement regarding academic titles of such administrators.

This legislation is now forwarded to you for your action.
