Rationale

Rationale

We are making these changes in response to the new NextGenMD curriculum that was fully approved by the faculty senate in November 2020. The new NextGenMD curriculum is structured to provide room for students to incorporate a joint or dual degree in lieu of a scholarly concentration. The dual degree is the scholarly concentration.

All courses associated with the MD/MBA dual program are related to the new FTMBA and NextGen MD programs or our existing accelerated-MBA or Master in Health Administration programs. The MBA portion of the program incorporates a new concentration in Health Management and Policy. [This change in MBA curriculum was accepted by the Faculty Senate in August 2020. A copy of that approval is included in the supporting documents.]

Re: Council approval of a proposal for an existing medical school dual degree

Dear Dr. Neider,

This is to inform the Faculty Senate that the Medical School Faculty Council met on January 26, 2021, to review the proposal for the update of the following joint degree program, which will reside at the University of Miami Miller School of Medicine (UMMSM):

* MD/MBA

The Executive Curriculum Committee (ECC), formerly known as Executive Faculty Curriculum Steering Committee (EFCSC), a standing committee of the Medical School Faculty Council and a body with appropriate expertise and membership, voted unanimously to proceed with this program on January 13, 2021. Based on ECC approval, the updated degree was approved by the Faculty Council membership with the stipulation that Executive Dean for Education or her designee will provide an update to the Council once every year. On January 26th, 40 Faculty Council members and/or their designated alternates voted Yes while there was one No vote for the program noted above. The Executive Dean for Education and Dean of the medical school have agreed to provide periodic updates about significant changes in the curriculum and information pertaining to the efficacy of the new NextGenMD curriculum to the Medical School Faculty Council.

Respectfully submitted,

Re: Dean's Support for Miller School of Medicine's NextGenMD Curriculum

Dear Dr. Neider:

I write to notify you of my full support for the University of Miami Miller School of Medicine's proposals to renew the 5 existing dual/joint degrees (PhD, JD, MPH, MBA, MSGM) and add 3 new combined programs (MAIA, Masters Humanities/Bioethics, Certificate Security Management) in our NextGenMD curriculum. The NextGenMD curriculum was approved in 2020 and Phase 1 is currently underway. As you recall, the scholarly concentration component includes robust second degree options as a key part of the new curriculum. Therefore, providing these dual/joint degrees is a critical aspect to the success of NextGenMD.

As noted by the Faculty Council, the overall curriculum was approved by our Executive Curriculum Committee in January 2021. This Faculty Council committee is charged with the oversight and management of the MD curriculum.

The atmosphere at the Miller School is charged with positive energy. Our leadership, faculty, students, and staff have come together around this opportunity to enhance the educational program. We are confident that this aspect of our new curriculum will help our learners transform lives and empower them to serve our global community.
