Exceptional teaching, scholarship and service have long been recognized as the three primary foundations of an outstanding university. The Senate has established three special annual awards explained in greater detail below, to recognize and foster excellence. Each of the awards has its own criteria, but a common requirement is good character. The awards are presented at a ceremony in the spring semester, followed by a reception.

The Faculty Senate established this annual award to recognize a distinguished record of teaching by individual faculty members at the University of Miami. The award is given to acknowledge either small setting teaching (e.g., clinical, field classes, or workshops) or large setting teaching (e.g., regular lectures).

Members of the full-time faculty will be invited each fall to nominate any member of the full-time faculty for this award. Other members of the University Community may recommend a candidate for this award through a member of the full-time faculty. A committee consisting of the last five awardees, together with the Provost and Faculty Senate Chair serving as ex-officio non-voting members, will review the nominations. If for any reason, a previous awardee cannot complete their term as a member of the Nominating Committee, the Senate Chair may appoint a previous awardee as a replacement. The Committee will report and make a recommendation to the Senate for selection.

For each nomination received, the Committee will require a) a brief letter of nomination from the nominator regarding the candidate’s qualifications for the award; b) a current academic curriculum vitae in standard professional format; c) a completed “Faculty Senate Outstanding Teaching Award Nomination Form.”

The Committee will review the nominations and select a set of finalists. Each finalist’s nominator will be asked to submit student evaluations of courses taught within the past five years and four letters from colleagues or alumni describing the contributions that make the nominee worthy of this teaching award. The Committee may ask the nominators for additional information, including examples of the nominee’s teaching materials, if necessary. Nominators may work with members of the University Community to assemble materials such as student evaluations and letters from other members of the University Community including alumni. If possible, nominees should not be told they are finalists. The awardee should have a
